

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress
Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

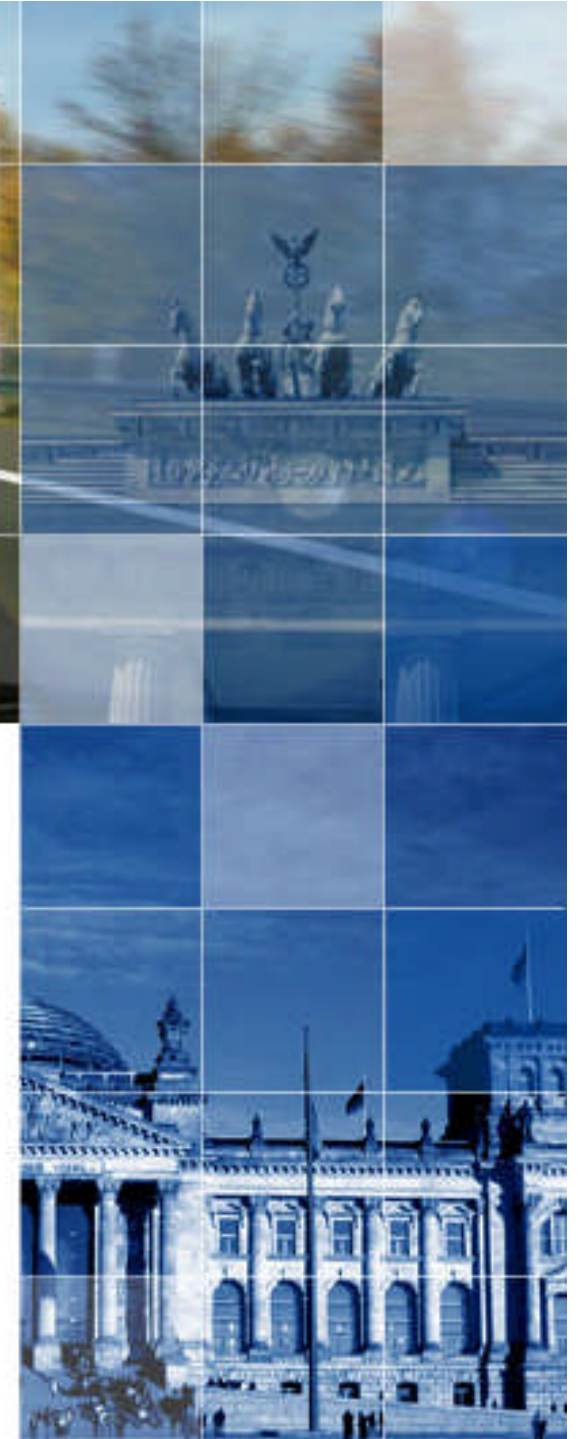

Welcome

„The Norwegian Curriculum for Category B“

Per Gunnar Veltun

Norwegian Public Roads Administration

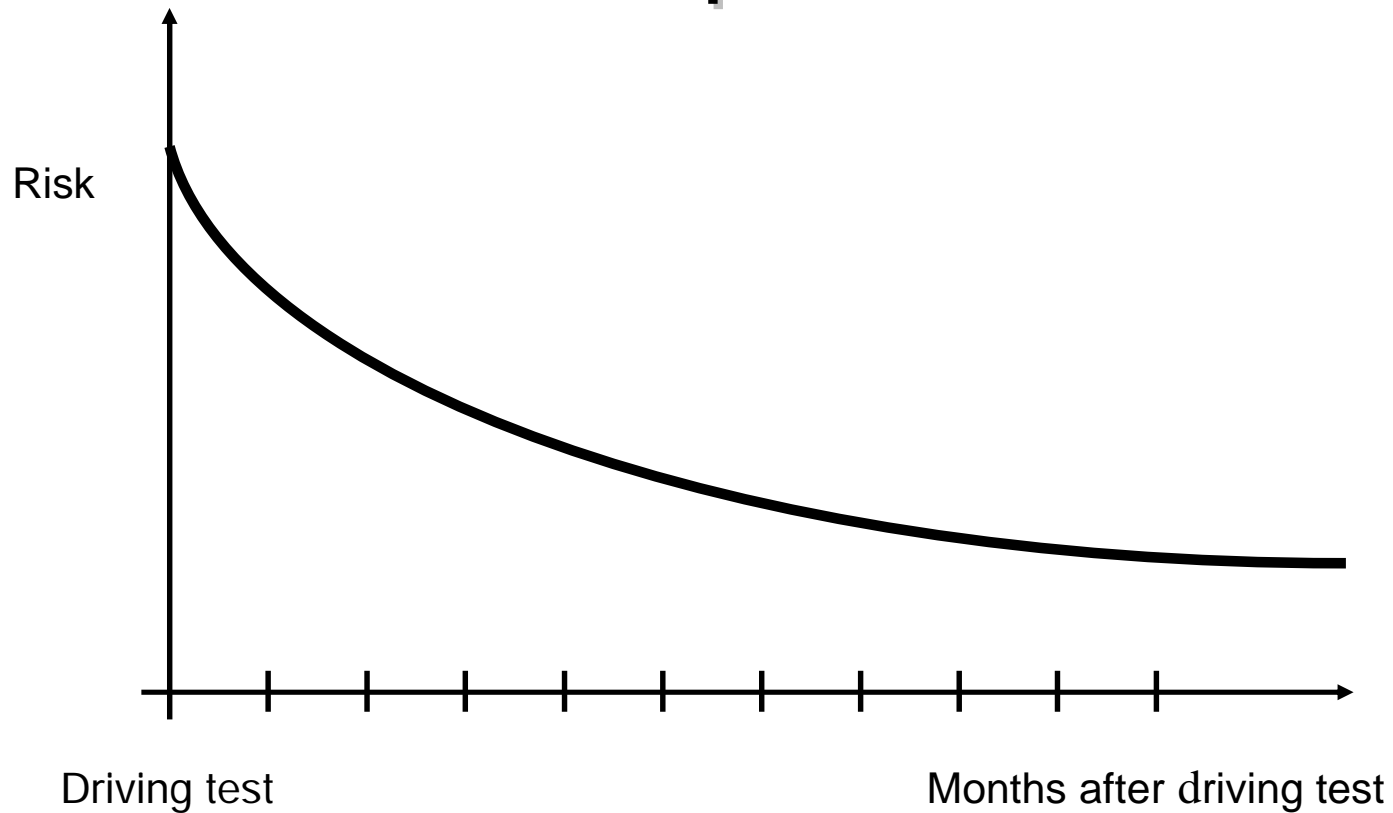

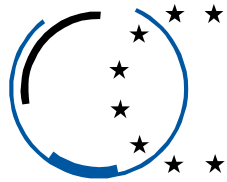

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Experience

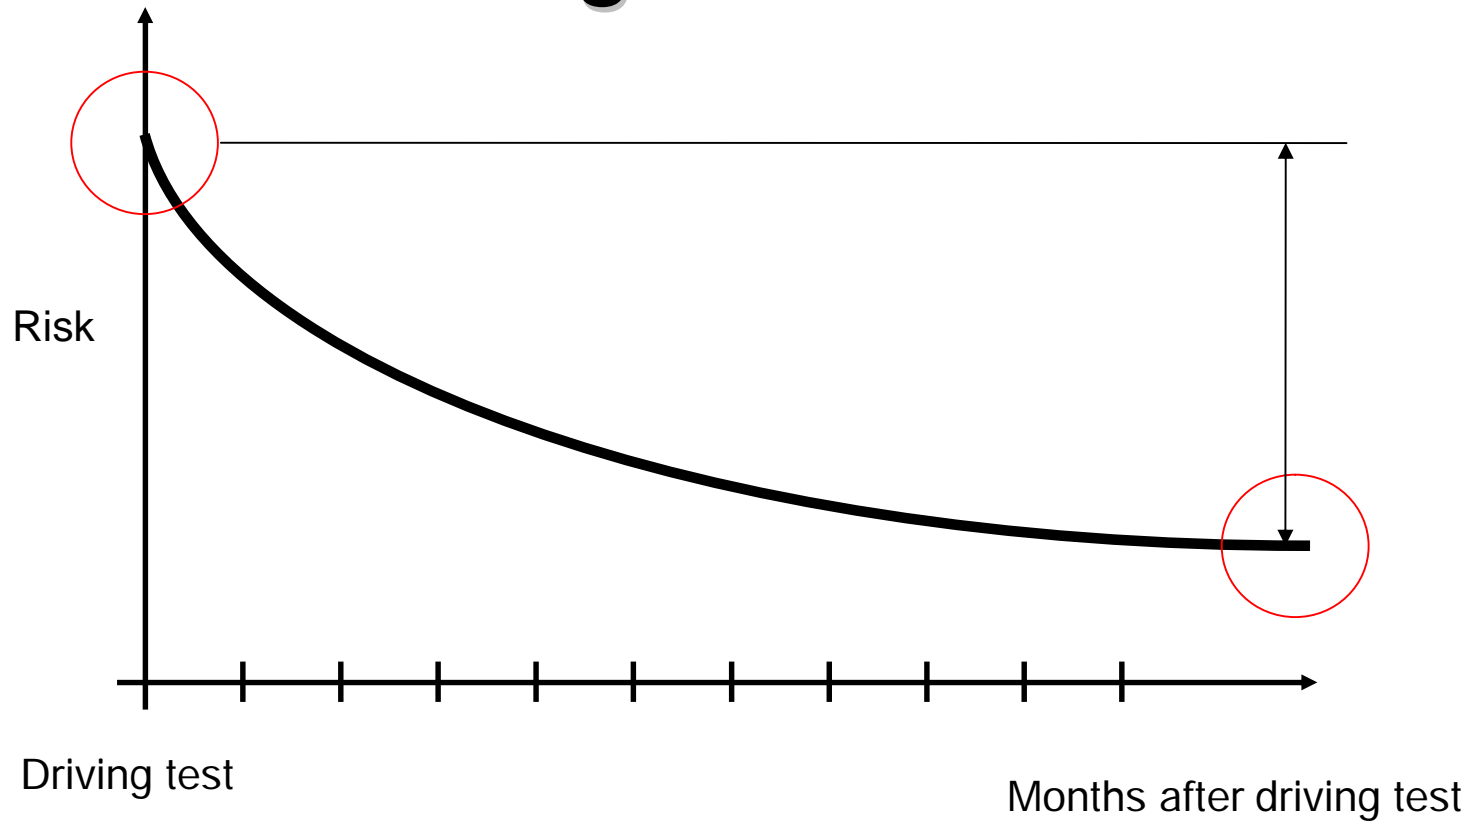

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Change of behaviour

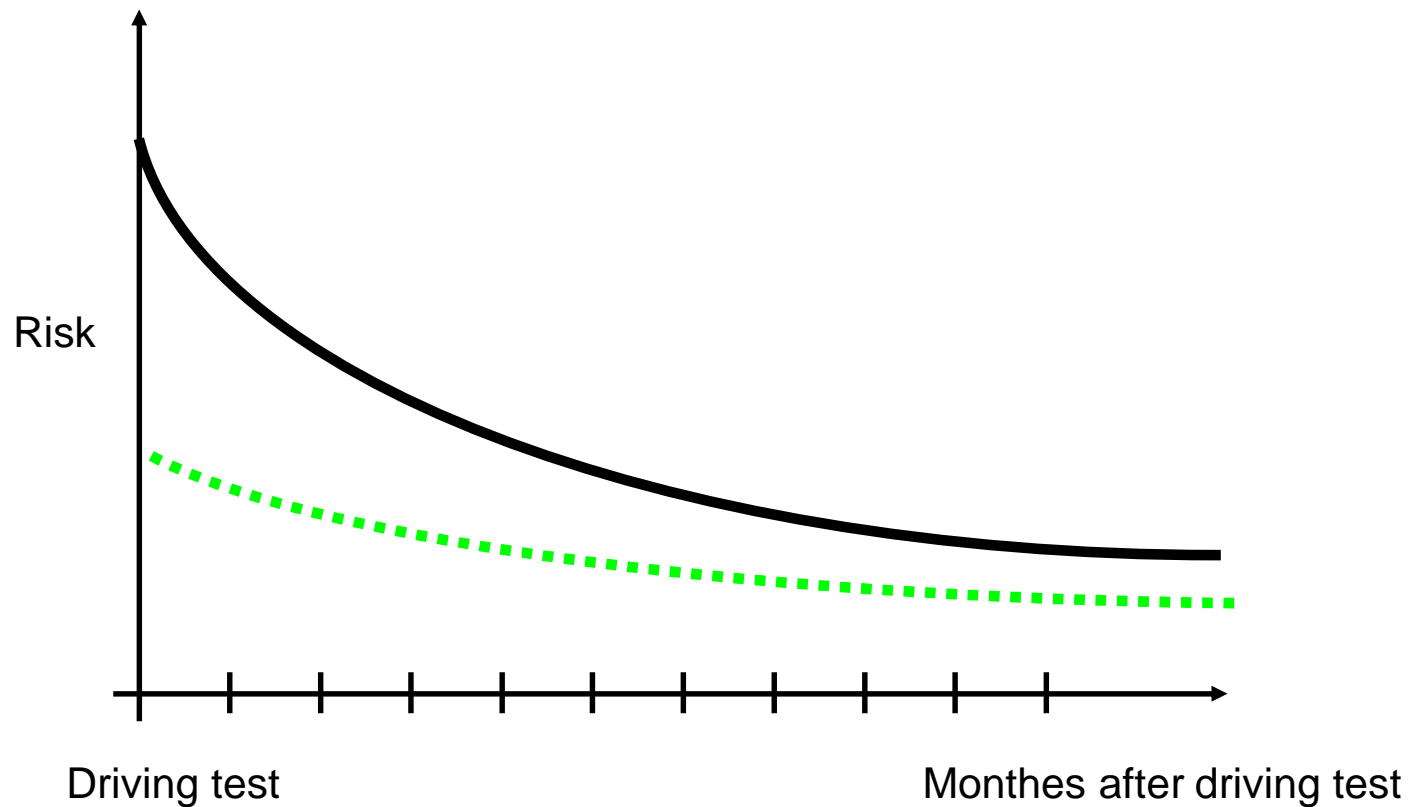

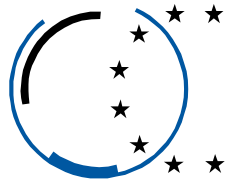

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Contribution to the 0-vision

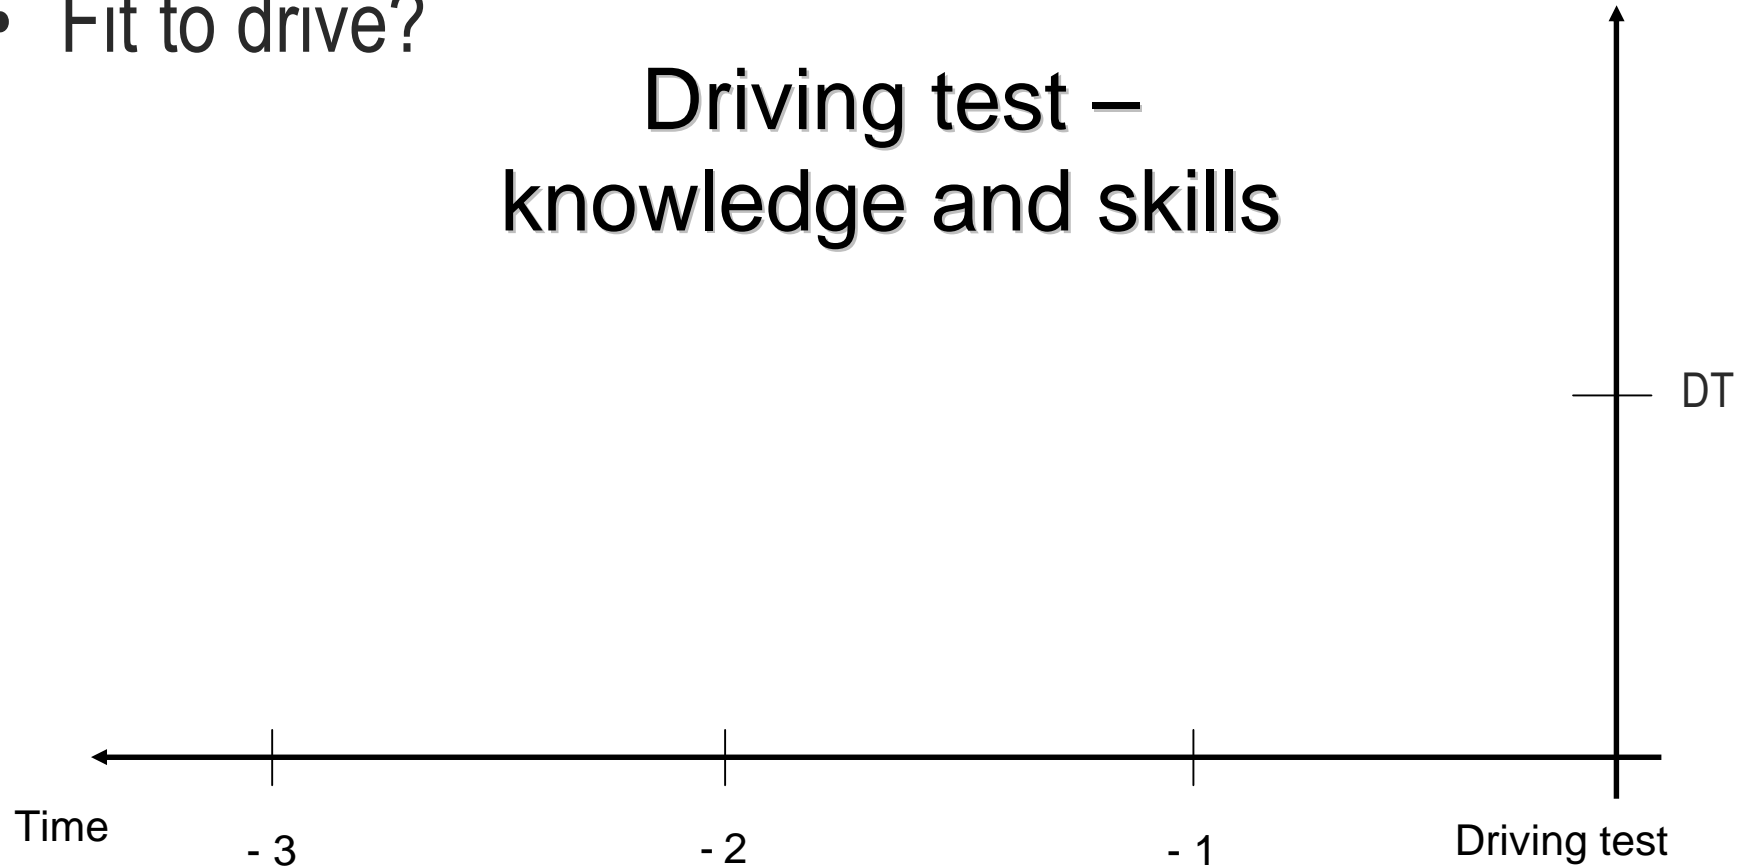

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

- Fit to drive?

Driving test – knowledge and skills

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Curriculum

Training
and education

Examination

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

- Driving test:
 - Knowledge and skills

- Road traffic competence:
 - Knowledge, skills, attitudes and motivation

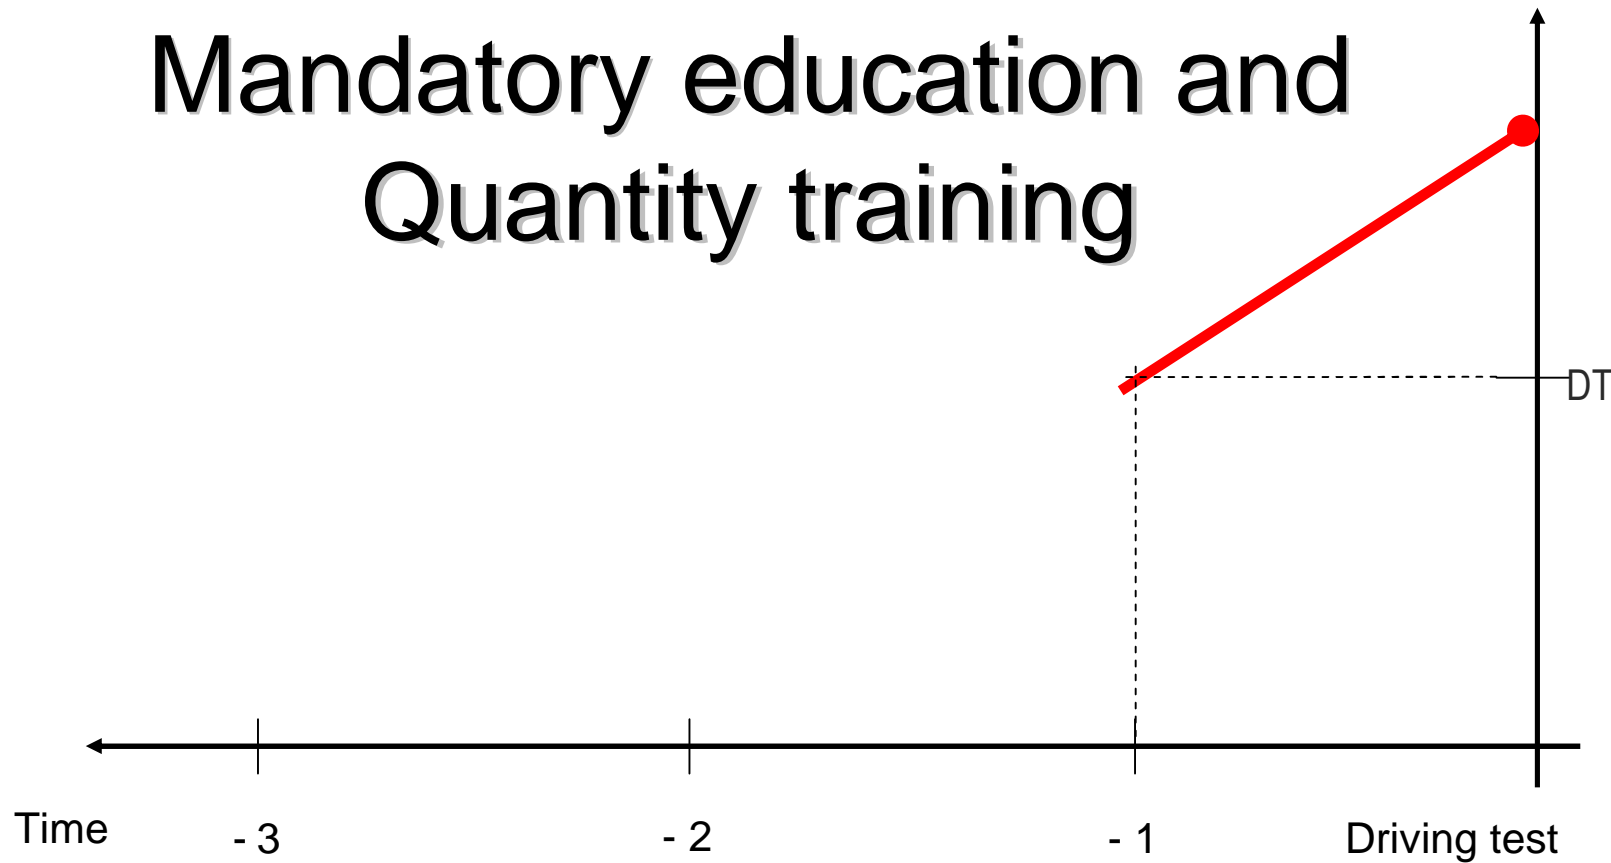

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Mandatory education and Quantity training

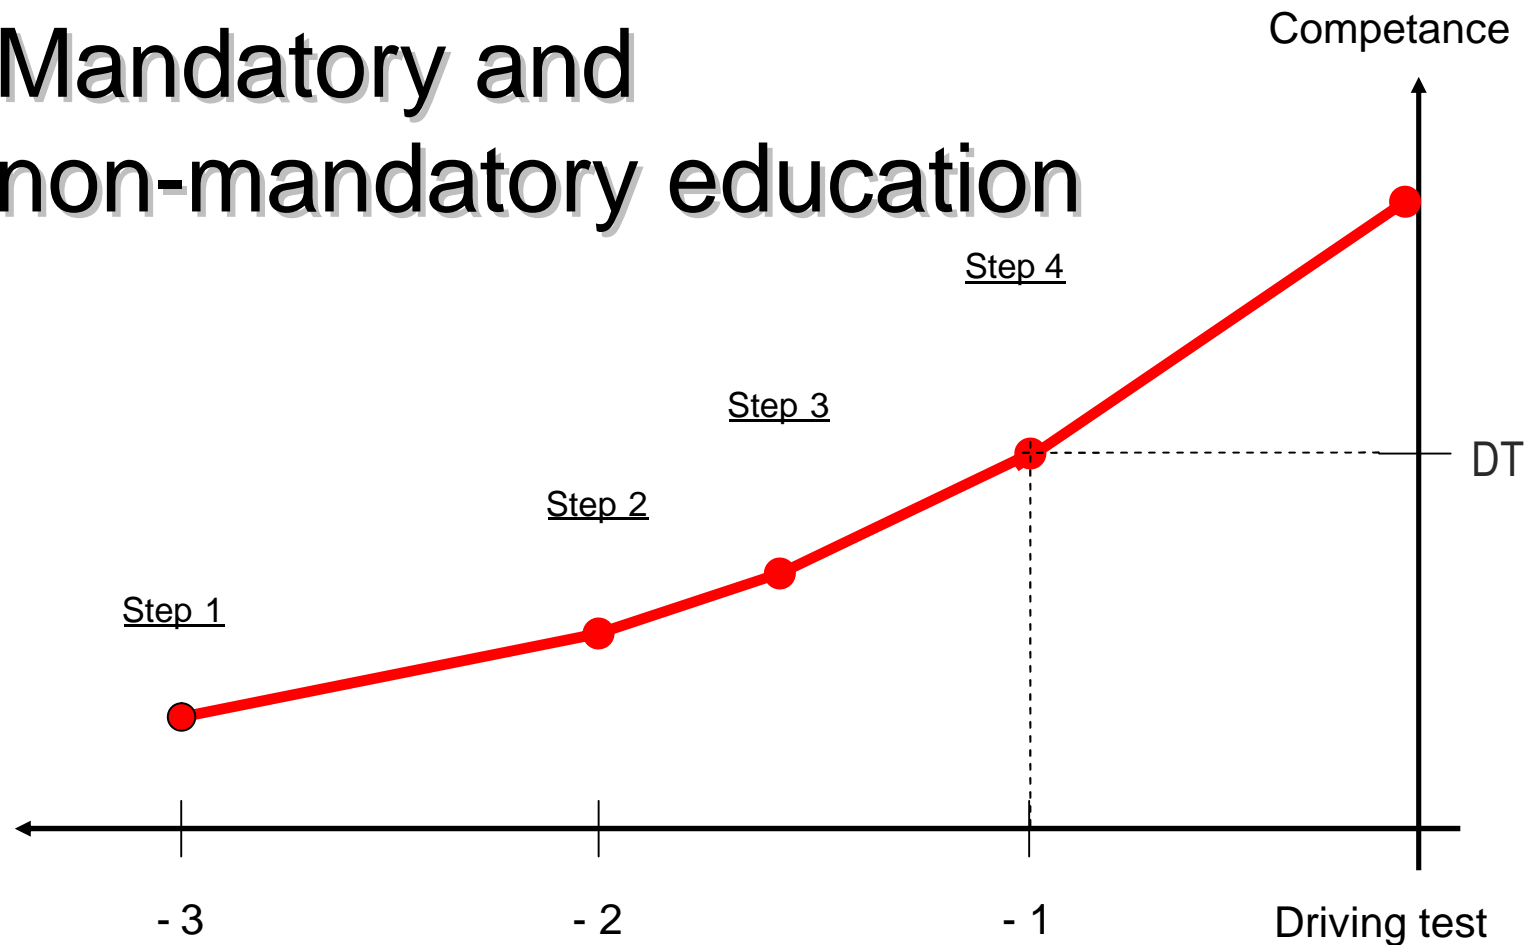

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress
Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Mandatory and non-mandatory education

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Main objectives of the training:

- After completing driver training for category B, the learner shall possess the necessary competence to drive a car in a responsible manner.
- The learner shall possess the knowledge and skills, self-insight and understanding of risk required to drive in a manner which:

Fit to Drive

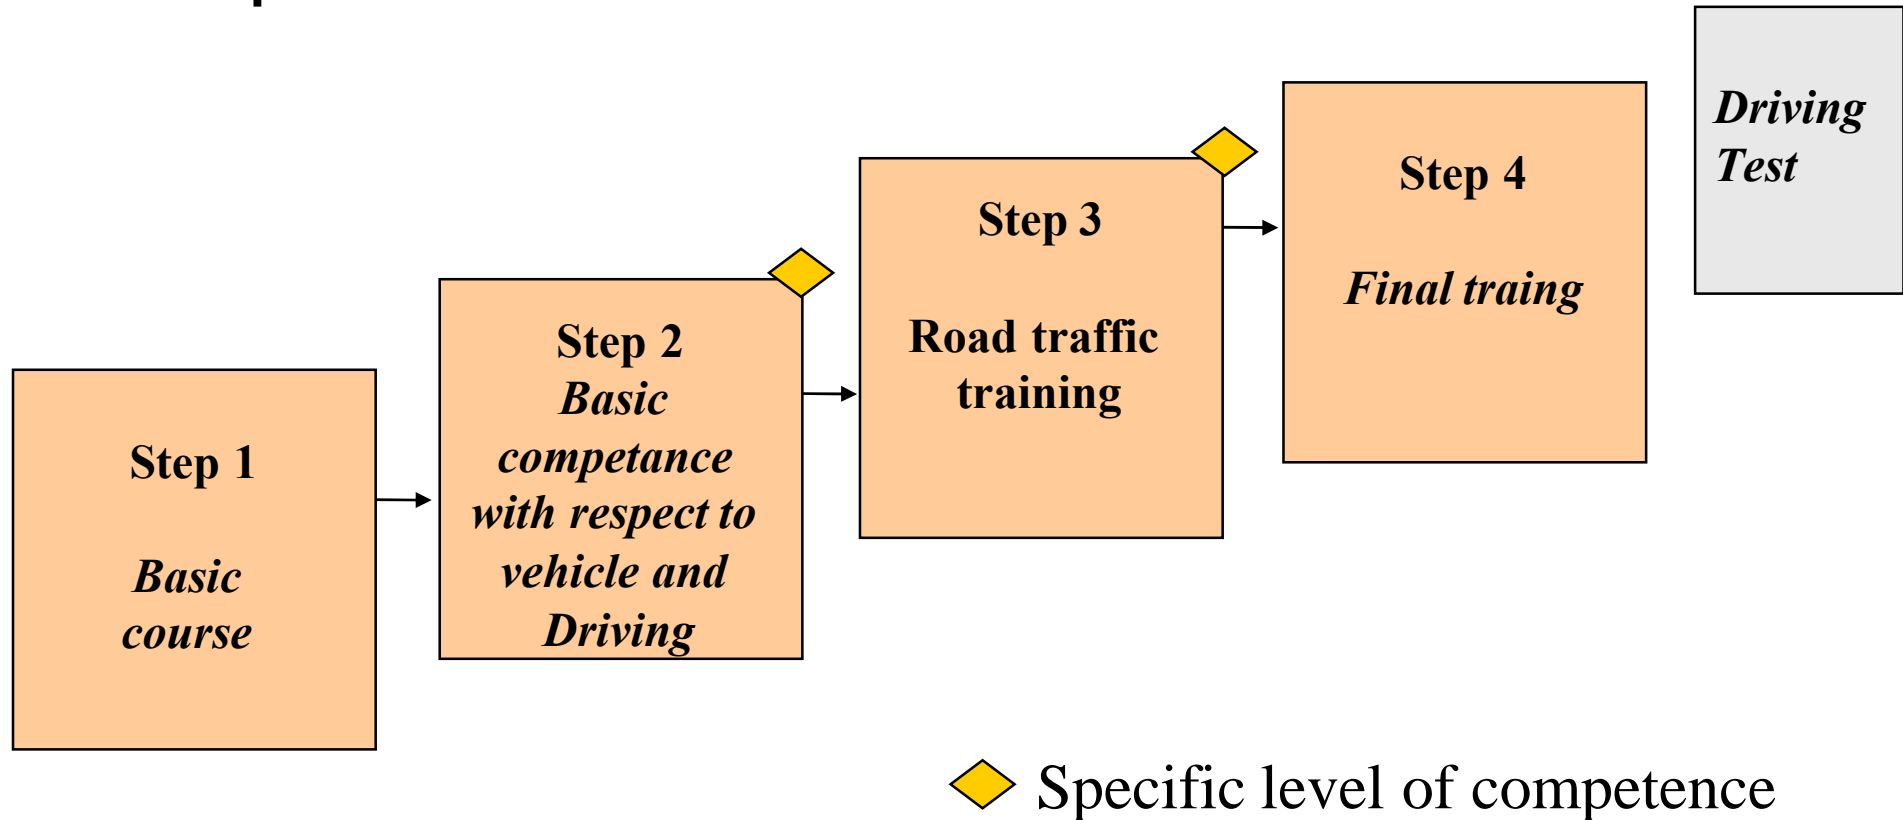

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

- Is safe
- Provides proper interaction
- Promotes traffic flow
- Shows consideration for health, the environment and the needs of others
- Is in compliance with regulations in force

Stepwise model

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Seven subjects are included in the driver training

- Legislation and road traffic as a system
- Vehicle manoeuvring
- Road traffic skills
- Economic and environmentally friendly driving
- Planning and preparations for driving
- Behavioural tendencies and judgement tendencies
- Self-knowledge

Fit to Drive

1st International Traffic Expert Congress

Berlin from May 3rd – 5th 2006

Fit to drive?

Curriculum

Training
and education

Examination